

Regulatory Disclosures

Verdancia Capital Ltd. operates as a private investment manager and may rely on applicable exemptions from registration or licensing in certain jurisdictions. Verdancia does not represent that it is registered or licensed with any securities authority except where explicitly stated.

Participation in Verdancia's investment vehicles is strictly limited to investors who meet the definition of qualified, professional, or institutional investors under relevant laws and regulations.

Verdancia intends to formally apply for an Investment Business Licence (IBL) in the 1Q of 2027, in accordance with the requirements of the BVI Financial Services Commission (BVI FSC). This licensing process is scheduled to coincide with the launch of the Taiwan Stratum Technology Fund and related fundraising activities.

Nothing on this website should be interpreted as investment advice, legal advice, or a solicitation to invest.